

EILEEN EPPERSON

Unitarian Coastal Fellowship

The Unitarian Coastal Fellowship of Morehead City has announced its association with the Rev. Eileen L. Epperson of Beaufort, who will assist the fellowship in various leadership functions during its ministerial search.

The Rev. Epperson is a trained interim pastor ordained by the Presbyterian Church USA. She has served churches in New England as interim pastor since 1994. She will serve as a facilitator for the congregation to prepare for a permanent minister.

Beginning in September, The Rev. Epperson will conduct the Sunday service on the second Sunday of each month. Other services for the month will be lay led. The Rev. Epperson's association with the fellowship includes leadership of adult religious education as well as pastoral care and committee advisement.

She has participated in both the 1993 and 1999 Parliaments of the World's Religions as a presenter and as co-organizer of the New England interfaith follow up to the Parliament. She has worked as a retreat and workshop leader, communications coach, yoga instructor and has served as volunteer with the Hunger Project to launch the African Women Food Farmer Initiative.
